RANCHO CUCAMONGA » As the economy continues to rebound, Inland Empire real estate is climbing, said one of the leading real estate developers in the region at his annual keynote speech to hundreds of real estate brokers and professionals Friday.

Randall Lewis, the head of one of Southern California's larger development companies, the Lewis Group of Companies, predicted continued economic growth for 2016 across the board:

- Jobs
- Home sales
- Home and shopping center construction

The remarks came at his annual State of the Inland Empire

SAN BERNARDINO » The family of a Moreno Valley woman killed in the Dec. 2 terror attack at the Inland Regional Center in San Bernardino has filed three claims with the county seeking damages totaling more than $200 million.

The claims were filed late Thursday afternoon by Los Angeles-based attorney Theida Salazar on behalf of Gregory, Tamisha and Kimberly Clayborn, relatives of Sierra Clayborn, an environmental health specialist for the county who was one of 14 people killed in the mass shooting, which the FBI called the deadliest terrorist strike on U.S. soil since the 9/11 attacks.

Each claimant seeks $68 million in damages. CLAIM » PAGE 4
